N. B.—Applications from parties in the State of Pennsylvania are to be made, directly, to A. B. McAlpine, Esq., Philadelphia.

Twenty-five cent Daguerreotypes.—Rees & Co., caution the people against all persons who at tempt to imitate their new and original system of picture making, and who pretend to work the new process and machinery, as discovered and introduced by Mr. Rees late from Germany. No. 289 Broadway.

S. T. Catlahan, Successor to C. C. Childs, 113
Nassau street, has unsurpassed facilities for executing in a neat and superior manner all kinds of printing, plain and fancy. Merchants, and others, requiring cards, circulars, handbills, bill heads, &c., would do well to call, examine his specimens and got his volca.

Knox.—That Frost-bitten old Fellow, Winter, may now blow his fingers as much as he pleases; no New Yorker need care a pin for him. Knox's beautiful stock of furs contains a mine of comfort, enough to thaw out the North Pole. Our fair friends have taken up the subject of these furs with their usual warmth, and we never yet beheld a lady who did not love furs, and who did not look pretty and attractive in them. Ladies, do not let those beautful furs escape your attention. And we would add, gentlemen, attention; remember that Knox is the hatter of Gotham; his hats are the hats of Gotham. There is no mistake about it. Knox's hats loom high on the horizon of hatdom.

Gentlemen's Three Ply Linen Collars.—All the latest patterns, of superior quality, are ready, whole-sale or retail. Our extensive assortment of winter gloves and under garments is now offered at retail — prices very low. IRA PEREGO & SON, No. 61 Nassau street.

The Notorious and the Celebrated.—Some tradesmen are notorious for breaking their word; others are celebrated for keeping it. To the latter class, GREEN, No. 1 Astor House, is known to belong. Hence it is that orders for shirts pour into his establishment. It is something to have a perfect fit. It is everything to have perfect fits at the fitting time.

Ladles' French Imported Shoes to be had at MESDAMES HILL & COLBY'S, 522 Broadway. Every variety of gaiters and shoes that is made in Paris can be found at their establishment. Handsome prunelle gaiters, in various colors, at $1 75: also, slippers at $1. Quilted gaiters and slippers of the best quality, and at reasonable prices.

Bargains—Until the 1st. March, 1853.—From this date until the first March, I am selling my entire stock of embroideries, lace goods, &c. &c., at an immense reduction, as I am importing my spring stock direct from Clasgow and Paris, and will require by that time over $5,000 in cash, for custom house charges, duties, &c JOHN MADDEN, Metropolitan lace and embroidery store, 557 Broadway, near Prince street.

Gourand's Liquid Hair Dye is, without exception or reservation, the very best ever invented. Beware of puffed dyes. DEFIANCE SALAMANDER SAFES.—C. J. GAYLEN'S patent.—ROBERT M. PATRICK, No. 90 John street, is the sole manufacturer, in the United States, of the above original and only reliable Salamanders, both as regards security against fire and burglars. Every safe sold at this, establishment is manufactured under the personal superintendence of Mr. C. J. Gayler, whose experience of twenty-six years as a safe maker, together with the many severe tests which safes of his manufacture have triumphantly withstood, in this and other cities, warrant the subscriber in recommending them as superior to any in use. They are the only safes to which Mr. F. C. Goffin's new patent impenetrable defiance lock is or can be applied. A large number of these locks are already in use by banks, brokers, merchants, jewellers, and others, and from the perfect security which they afford against the efforts of the most skilful burglars, either by means of gunpowder, false kers, picks, or drills together with their convenience, simplicity, and durability combined, are rapidly increasing in public estimation, and are confidently offered as equal, if not superior, to any lock in the world. Safes of all sizes, suitable for merchants, bankers, pewellers, record offices, steamboats, &c., for and this proof bank vault doors, plate chests for price familias, No. 90 John threet, cerner of Gold, by No. 90 John street, corner of Gold, by ROBERT M.
